RELEVANT PROJECTS

AI Marketing Project Consultant | HubSpot AI Foundations Bootcamp (WGU x HubSpot)

Remote — May 2026 – Jun 2026

5-week intensive AI and marketing bootcamp (Cohort 1, 303 members) working on a higher education marketing case study and independent AI agent development.

- Designed a CRM-based enrollment communication pipeline in HubSpot, applying lead management and audience segmentation to support personalized prospective student outreach.
- Created segmented email marketing campaigns tailored to distinct audience groups (students and parents), demonstrating personalization strategy and data-driven content targeting.
- Developed an AI content repurposing workflow using HubSpot Content Remix and HubSpot Breeze AI to extend marketing assets across email, social media, and short-form channels.
- Designed an AI enrollment support agent concept to identify student application barriers and recommend personalized next actions using CRM data.
- Rebuilt and redesigned a live AI recommendation agent (Movie Night Picker) on Agent.ai using GPT-5 mini — restructured the intake flow, added ranked picks with a side-by-side comparison table and a feedback loop — publicly accessible at agent.ai/agent/nskz9ra99fevbwjv
